My husband & I have dreamed of adding on to our house ever since we moved in 4 years ago. Unfortunately we had a very limited budget that prolonged our vision. We had several builders come out to give us bids, but they quoted prices that exceeded what our home was even worth. Bruce Gifford was the first builder to give us hope that our plans would come to fruition.

Bruce Gifford is a honest, patient & skilled builder. He made the frustration of living through a remodel bearable. I would highly recommend Bruce Gifford & Cowboy Construction.

Bruce was patient and understanding when we had difficulty making choices. He helped us as first time remodelers to make decisions and implement our ideas. There were many times that he gave us the time we needed to figure out what we wanted... even if it slowed his projects down. Bruce also gave us helpful advice to make economical decisions.

Bruce Gifford is honest & hardworking. When my husband & I wanted to use salvaged doors to save money, Bruce told us that we really weren't saving money because it would cost more in labor than buying a new door. He had our best interest in mind and actually lost money for himself.

Bruce began working with his father as a teenager and gained construction and cabinetry experience. When my husband & I were having a hard time finding a bathroom vanity & cabinetry, I was able to give Bruce a picture of what I wanted & he built a piece of furniture that exceeded my expectations... even though he had many projects going on at once.

Remodeling is never a fun task... especially while you are living in the remodel.. but having Bruce Gifford & Cowboy Construction has made the process more bearable.

Sincerely,

Heather Jackson

To Whom It May Concern:

Bruce Gifford, Jr. is a skilled, reputable, honest and talented builder in the Wimberley area. He grew up in Wimberley, and understands the culture of our town. He is friendly, conscientious and communicative. He has worked on at our home on several projects. He helped remodel our kitchen, bath and living room. He helped build our two-car/plus shop garage, and recently completed a unique fence around our courtyard. I would hire Bruce again.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Sabatier

Jennifer Sabatier, Owner
