Proclamation

Be it known that

Whereas,

September 17 marks the anniversary of the signing of our U.S. Constitution, establishing a government which Benjamin Franklin described as "a republic, if you can keep it." We celebrate that our constitution, amended only 27 times, has stood the test of time; and,

Whereas,

It is appropriate on this anniversary to commit ourselves to protecting the freedoms guaranteed to us through this magnificent document, remembering that lost rights may never be regained; and,

Whereas,

We join with Wimberley's Jacob's Well, Capitol Area, and national Daughters of the American Revolution chapters in commemorating this momentous event in our nation's history:

Now, Therefore,

I, Stephen Klepfer, Mayor of the Village of Wimberley, Texas, do hereby proclaim

September 17-23, 2004

as

Constitution Week

In Wimberley,

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Village of Wimberley to be affixed this 25th Day of August in the Year Two Thousand Four

Stephen Klepfer, Mayor, Village of Wimberley
